

Folk Singer Glenn Yarbrough

Yarbrough Concert Will Be 'Reunion'

A folk group, Glenn Yarbrough and the Original Limelites, will appear in concert at the West Anchorage High School auditorium at 8 p.m. Oct. 27.

Yarbrough and his fellow trio members, Alex Hassilev and Lou Gottlieb, have billed their concert tour, "Glenn Yarbrough and the Limelites Reunion '75."

The tour is a reunion for the trio which disbanded in 1963. Yarbrough, the most celebrated of the group, became a solo attraction in clubs, concert halls and on college campuses across the nation. He soared high on national charts with recordings such as "Baby the Rain Must Fall" and "It's Gonna Be Fine."

Hassilev gave up his dream of becoming a classical musician to write popular songs. He also took time to play a feature role in "The Russians Are Coming."

Gottlieb founded the Morning Star Ranch, a 31-acre development open to the public, and also played the part of a guru in the movie, "I Love You Alice B. Toklas."

The trio is being brought here by Northwest Releasing Corp.

meback

Anchorage Times 1975 Yarbrough Concer
will be Reunion

Clipped By:
greg7426
12 Jan 2025